Crossing The Bar

Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.
For though from out our bourne
of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Later she attended Mary Washington College, Fredericksburg, and after completing her course there she was employed at Merk & Co. Elkton.

Those who knew her will long remember her sweet disposition and her consideration for others, and the splendid life which she lived was reflected in the multitude of people from far and wide who came to Beulah Church to pay final tribute to their friend. The floral tribute was beautiful. Hal Harold impressively sang "Sunrise". A choir of her friends and neighbors sang, "How firm a Foundation." The pianist was her friend, Charlotte Ann Hevener. AT REST

After a brief illness of eight days, William Taylor Townsend passed to his final reward on Sunday, March 30, 1924. Just as the sun was sending its golden rays into the new day, his spirit winged its way into the presence of his Master. Mr Townsend was born February 10, 1851, making his age 73 years, 1 month and 20 days. He was a loyal Christian. His one delight was to see the church of Christ prosper, and he did all in his power to make it so—giving of his time, his substance and his earnest prayer. Such loyalty I have never known. Uncle Taylor, as he was known by his host of friends, never tired in the work of his Master.

The home has lost a kind and fond husband, the community a good citizen and the church a good friend. Our loss is heaven's gain. This saint is at rest in the Lord. In the three years the writer has been with him he has lived in the hope of joining that family in the home described in John 14. "I am going to join that glorious band" were his last words.

After a brief service conducted by his pastor Rev Palmer Eubank, the body was laid to rest in the family graveyard on Monday, in the presence of a host of friends and neighbors. We will miss him. P.E.

He who dared bravely
Bravely died,
And asks no tears of you:
For you were by his side.
In that last tilt at death,
He saw your smile
Ere the light fell dim,
And all the breath
Of your warm love
Encompassed him.
And so just one quick sob of grief
As when you kissed the other day
And said goodbye;
Then smile
And gird yourself to walk awhile
A steep and lonely way.
Your lost one lives and loves you still.
Onward and upward:
He awaits you there
Beyond the hill.

Sergeant Cecil G. VanReenen

On Sunday, December 14, 1947 at two o'clock, P. M., the funeral of Sergeant Cecil G. VanReenen was conducted with military honors at the Edray Methodist Church by Rev. R. H. Skaggs.

As a tribute of respect to the young man whose life was sacrificed for the cause of freedom on the battle fields of Belgium in the Second World War, it is estimated that the largest crowd ever seen at that church, numbering around two thousand, was in attendance.

The young soldier was a son of Gilbert VanReenen, of Edray, and a great-grandson of Cornelius VanReenen, immigrant from Utrech, Holland, and for many years a highly respected and honored citizen, and local minister of the Methodist Church.

In her girlhood, she united with the Methodist Church and consistently lived her religion, serving faithfully her family, friends and neighbors. Her patience with life's lesser cares, and her courage in the face of great sorrow, will be an inspiration to all those who cherish her memory.

There is a day of sunny rest
For every dark and troubled night;
And grief may bide, an evening guest,
But joy shall come with early light.

For God has marked each sorrowing day,
And numbered every secret tear,
And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay,
For all his children suffer here.

Alice Waugh Missing

Alice R. Waugh, 78, of Marlinton, has been missing since last Tuesday and an extensive search has been underway in Seneca State Forest since Friday.

Miss Waugh was last seen on Tuesday at the Seneca Forest picnic area while attending the Pocahontas County Retired School Employee Association picnic. She was reported missing by neighbors on Thursday morning.

On Thursday afternoon members of the Marlinton Fire Department searched a section of Price Hill below Rt. 219 at the request of State Police. It was thought a car may have gone off the road. However, nothing was found. aug. 18, 088

Late Thursday evening Miss Waugh's car was found at the end of the old road going to the site of the Michael Mountain fire tower, about two miles from Rt. 28. The road leads off to the east from the picnic area and is extremely rough.

Marlinton firemen searched along the road Thursday night and again on Friday morning. Over the weekend trained dogs and hundreds of volunteers combed Michael Mountain, which is extremely rugged in places. The search of the area is continuing as we go to press on Wednesday with no success so far. A plane was used Monday afternoon to hunt for clues to Miss Waugh's disappearance.

Although the weather cooled slightly on Tuesday, searchers have had to suffer with high temperatures and humidity as they work their way over the rough mountainside.

At this time police do not suspect foul play. It is assumed Miss Waugh got onto the road by mistake, wasn't able to turn her car around, and then attempted to walk out when she reached the end of the road.

WOODROW WILSON

Woodrow Wilson, the great President, passed away Sunday morning, February 3, 1924, between eleven and twelve o'clock. The time of his departure was at hand. He had fought a good fight. He had finished his course. He had kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for him a crown of righteousness.

He was a man who had known the greatness of power and place, but his life was one of service to his country, and he bore a stainless reputation. Never a man of strong physical powers, he lived a busy and useful life, and was given strength to round and complete one of the most notable careers, ever given a mortal to pursue.

Washington, Lincoln, and Wilson are outstanding names in the bright history of the American Republic.

At this time it is fit and proper that our thoughts turn to the religious side of Woodrow Wilson's life. He was a man of profound faith. He believed in God. He believed in Jesus Christ. His life is a beautiful commentary on the words: This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

It is easy to trace in the life of this great man a steady growth in faith. This grace in him increased steadily in strength with the passing years, until it seemed that his public utterance came to have the confidence and the fire of the ancient Hebrew prophets.

"How sleep the brave, who sink to rest
By all their country's wishes blest!
When spring, with dewy fingers cold,
Returns to deck their hallowed mould,
She there shall dress a sweeter sod
Than fancy's feet have ever trod.

"By fairy hands their knell is rung,
By forms unseen their dirge is sung:
There Honour comes, a pilgrim grey,
To bless the turf that wraps their clay;
And Freedom shall awhile repair,
To dwell a weeping hermit there."

Soul and body part like friends—

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear grandson, Richard Coe Callison, who departed this life May 19, 1946:

Three sad and lonely years have passed,
Since our great sorrow fell.
The shock we received that day
We still remember well.

The blow was hard, the shock severe,
We never thought your death so near
And only those who have lost can tell
The pain of parting without farewell.

Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is his voice we loved to hear,
'Tis sad but true, we wonder why
That on May 19th he had to die.

Sleep on, dear Richard,
We miss you more each day.
God wanted you for a bud to bloom
In the Master's bouquet!

Sadly missed by his grandparents

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord"

A true companion has gone above
A mother has gone to heaven;
Leaving twenty-three grandchildren back here below
And great-grandchildren forty-seven.

As an aunt, a cousin, a neighbor a friend;
The number could never be stated
Or the influence she left back here in this world
Could never be highly enough rated.

No one needs a souvenir to remember her by,
She placed a souvenir in our heart;
For the life she lived while here on this earth
From each of us never will part.

For our loved one who has passed on before us,
We all hold a heart full of love;
And may her Lord and our Lord, so help us to live
That we'll meet her again above.

—Submitted and dedicated to her memory by J. M. Beal.

Written by Earl T. Wood, her grandson.

William Elmer Baxter was born June 14, 1885, and departed this life February 15, 1943. He married Miss Margaret V. Hevener of Virginia. To this union two children were born, Henry Clark at home, and a daughter, Virginia Ruth, who died in infancy. He is survived by his wife and son Clark.

God called our friend away to our great loss and Heaven's gain. He told us he had a home over there, and he is there with Jesus and the holy angels; greeting daughter, father, mother and other loved ones gone before. He has told them how he overcame, and, likely he is now looking over the portals of Heaven and saying dear companion, dear friends and neighbors come over; this is such a place of beauty, without sickness and without parting. Here is joy and peace; we have no need of the sun to shine, for Jesus the son of God, giveth light through all eternity. We are singing how beautiful is the home of the soul.

So let us take new hope, new courage, new faith, trusting God and reading His Holy word that we too may be over comers. Let us be like Abraham of old, who looked for a city not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise him all creatures here below,
Praise Him above ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

Willis Carr Killed

Willis Carr, aged 19 years, third son of Peter Carr, was killed by a blast while at work on the Greenbrier Railway last Friday (December 8). He was working as a shoveler at camp no 2 of John L. Pitts, which is in charge of Capt. Monday, about four miles above Marlinton. The camp is situated near the deceased boy's home.

About fifteen men were at work in a gang and a stump was bored under to be blowed out. A rock was struck in the boring and the hole was drilled through it. Three sticks of dynamite were put down and the men retired to what they thought was a safe distance and young Carr was the farthest away. When the blast was exploded a piece of rock weighing about 4 lbs. came hurtling over the heads of the other men and struck the unfortunate youth on the head, crushing his skull. The blow was glancing and made such a wound as cannon ball might have caused.

He was about 200 feet away and was looking toward the blast which was between him and the sun. He was holding his cap to shade his eyes from the sun in order to see and the stone came over and struck him behind the cap. He fell against a colored man who was standing by him. He never regained consciousness though when he was being carried away he muttered; "Lord have mercy." Drs Cunningham and Price were called to attend him. He died at one o'clock Saturday morning. He was buried at the Friel burying ground last Sunday.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Miranda Jane Dilley, who passed away one year ago to day, July 13, 1958.

Mother, we think of you to day and how we miss you,
We mourn for her in silence,
No eyes can see us weep:
But many a silent tear is shed
While others are asleep,
Somewhere above this troubled world,
Safe beyond all grief and care,
Our mother rests in heavenly peace,
God grant some day we meet her
there.
She went away without farewell,
She said good-by to none;
Her loving heart had ceased to beat,
Before we knew she had gone.
She did not fail to do her best,
Her heart was true and tender,
She worked hard for those she left.

For all her loving kindness she asked nothing in return.

'Tis sweet to remember our mother so
dear;
Though absent from us, yet ever so near,
Unseen by the world, she stands by
our side,
And whispers, dear daughters, death
cannot divide.

Mrs. Claire East.
Mrs. Elizabeth Schumaker.

A GOLD STAR

In our window a star of gold,
Shines brightly throughout the years
With its beauty a story it holds
Of war and death and tears.

You marched off from home so gay,
To fight for freedom and peace,
Oh! so proudly your life you gave
Our Saviour, you shall meet.

We often go over the long pas years,
Our memories are just of you,
And with eyes saddened with tears,
We smile and say, "May God Bless You."

We know you are safe and in Jesus' care
But still we miss you so,
We know again some day we'll share
Together the happiness we used to know.

Our Gold Star shall forever shine
For a brother who fought and died
Oh, dear God, he is Thine,
Please give him our love, Oh. Glory on High.

ANDREW PRICE

Andrew Price died at the Greenbrier Valley hospital in Ronceverte on Wednesday afternoon, March 26, 1930. The cause of his death was complications involving the liver and other vital organs. He has not been well since Christmas, but he had only been confined to his bed for a period of little more than three weeks. He was in the 60th year of his age, having been born January 27, 1871.

On Friday afternoon he was buried from the Marlinton Presbyterian Church, and laid to rest in the Mt. View Cemetery near the grave of his father, his mother and his little grand daughter. The service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. K. V. Bowen. The Minister read the lament of King David upon the death of his General, Abner; the poems, "Life", by Mr. Price; "Rest,", by Mrs. Price, his mother; "Dear Lord and Father," by Whittier. The beauty and simplicity of the service was in keeping with the life of this truly great man.

An immense crowd of people from over the county and state gathered to pay tribute to their friend. Business in the town was suspended. The rich and the poor, the influencial and the humble, the white and the colored, were present in such numbers that only a part could be crowded into the church.

The active pall bearers were John A. McLaughlin, S. N. Hench, F. R. Hill, P. T. Ward, A. H. McFerrin, J. M. Bear.

Honorary pall bearers were Judge S. H. Sharp, A. P. Edgar, J. E. Buckley, A. E Cooper, T. S. McNeel, S. L. Brown, D. C. Adkison, J. Hunter McClintic, Charleston; S. Reid Moore Judge C. S. Dice, Lewisburg; Chas. S McWhorter, Lewisburg; Samuel Price Lewisburg; Hon. J. Alfred Taylor, Fayetteville; Hon. Geo. W. Sharp, Charleston; Clarence Dickson, Alderson; Edgar Dickson, Alderson; French Nickell, Ronceverte; G. D. McNeill, J. E. Baxter, Hubert Echols, Jennings Randolph, Elkins; A. D. Neill; G. C. Hamilton, Dr. F. T. McClintic, Jane McElwee, J. A. Sydenstricker, E. H. Wade, M J. McNeel, Dr. H. W. McNeel, J. W. Reynolds, S. B. Wallace, E. C. Smith, Simon Schucat.

The flower bearers were Mrs. A. P. Edgar, Mrs. Fred W. Gray, Mrs. Simon Schuchat, Mrs. E. C. Smith, Mrs. H. G. Thomas, Mrs. S. W. Pollock, Mrs. Wise Herold, Mrs. J. A. McLaughlin, Mrs. J. A. Sydenstricker Mrs. J. M. Bear, Mrs. Sherman Moore Mrs. June McElwee, Mrs. W. B. King, Mrs. E. G. Herold, Mrs. Z. S. Smith, Sr., Mrs. S. H. Sharp, Mrs. J. A. Hoover, Mrs. P. T. Ward, Mrs. M. L. Coyner, Mrs. L. T. Coyner.

Andrew Price was the son of Rev. Wm. T. Price, D. D. and Anna Randolph Price. His brothers are Dr. J. W. Price, Dr. N. R. Price, Calvin W. Price; his sisters, Dr. Susan A. Price and Mrs. R. R. Hunter.

February 10, 1897, he married Miss Grace Leigh Clark, daughter of Mr. Alvin Clark and Mrs. Agnes Beard Clark, of the Levels. Mrs. Price survives with their two children, Agnes Louise, the wife of Rev. George J. Cleaveland of Hinton; Margaret Randolph, the wife of Dr. R. L. Hoke of Moorefield, Kentucky.

In religion he was a life long member of the church of his fathers, the Presbyterian. He was a Deacon in the Marlinton Church.

Thus is noted the passing of the passing of the leading citizen of Pocahontas county. How to write in this limited space of the life activities of this manysided man is beyond me. I can but add this tribute from a friend who knew and appreciated him.—

In the passing of Andrew Price, another great man is gathered to his fathers and we reverently bow our heads in humble submission to the will of the Great All-Father and pause to drop a sympathetic tear with the bereaved family. Theirs is the greatest loss of a kind and loving husband, father and home.

His professional colleagues will remember him as a great lawyer. To his scientific brethren, he was the practical geologist. To thousands, he was the learned historian and clever writer; but to those of us who were his fellow townsmen and those who knew him best, these great attainments are overshadowed and our fondest memory of him is that of a gracious friend.

The greatest tribute the world can pay is to say that children loved him Many a weary student has followed the path to his door that they might glean from his wide experience gems of philosophy, practical fact and kindly advice.

Many children have been delighted as he opened to them the book of nature and read the story of antiquity from the graven stone. He was their friend.

His race is run; his course is finished. He has made his contribution to posterity. The world is richer for his having lived. I am glad I knew him. He was my friend.

"He is not dead, this friend—not dead,
But in the path we mortals tread
Got some few trifling steps ahead
And nearer to the end;
So that you, too, once past the bend,
Shall meet again, as face to face, this friend
You fancy dead."

OBITUARY.

W. C. Mann, who met an appalling death by a falling stone, near Fairview Church November 23, was born in Alleghany County, Virginia, December 26, 1845. He entered the holy union with Miss Phoebia McAllister in the autumn of 1865. They were playmates, which enabled them to be thoroughly acquainted with each other's disposition. After marriage they lived on Jackson's River in Bath County, Va., from whence they removed to the old homestead, north-east of Edray.

At the tender age of seventeen Mr Mann entered the Confederate service of the Civil War. With this part of of his life are connected many thrilling scenes which mark the career of a true soldier. All that is past and another veteran has sunk to that sleep over which the Southern willows mourn and the Northern roses weep.

He was a member of the M. E. Church South, and possessed that gentle spirit which makes a good husband, loving father, and a generous neighbor who is worthy of the admiration of his fellow men.

Since no encomium can minister to the dead, let tender memories embalm his virtues, a richer tribute than statue or elegy can pay. Though his body rests beneath the sod, his soul is walking the streets of paradise; for as the aqueous vapors of some gentle river are lifted into the skies by the morning sun, the Christian soul is raised by the soft hands of angels into the glorious sunlight of God. So great are God's promises that, doubtless, the tears we shed are borne by invisible hands to the sinless land where they are converted into showers of blessings.

Then bleeding heart be consoled by Christ's victories of death, in which our beloved live.

In Memoriam

IN loving remembrance on Father's Day of our beloved husband and father, Clyde Sheppard, who was killed July 30, 1954 in the Glen Rogers Mines.

He has gone from his dear ones,
His children and his wife,
Whom he willingly toiled for
And loved as his life.

Oh, God, how mysterious
And how strange are Thy ways,
To take from us the loved one
In the best of his days.

No one knows my longing,
A few have seen me weep;
I shed my tears with an aching heart
While others are sound asleep.

Altha McGuire Kills Self With 32-20 Gun On Elk Mountain Fri.

Altha McGuire, 21, Of Elk Mountain Fires Shot Into Head and Kills Self Last Friday—Bondy Was Discovered Shortly After Three O'Clock.

On last Friday afternoon, the body of Altha McGuire, aged 21, was found lying in the Moore orchard on the farm of his father, C. G. McGuire on Elk Mountain, with a gun shot wound in his head from the muzzle of a 32-20 rifle.

In a note left by young McGuire, he stated that he had planned his fate for a long time, although he had never mentioned it to anyone. His father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. McGuire, left early Friday morning for Clifton Forge, Va., where Mr. McGuire was to receive treatment at a hospital there. Before they left the house it is said that they told Altha to take care of everything around the farm, and Henry Nelson, who for the past year has been working for Mr. McGuire, asked young McGuire to feed the cows while he called on a neighbor, and when he returned they would round up the sheep. When Nelson returned, McGuire was not to be found anywhere, but upon investigation, it was discovered that there had been a note left at the house. Not being able to read, Nelson summoned his son, who read the note containing directions as to where the body would be found.

It is said that McGuire left his home shortly after his mother and father had started for Clifton Forge, and climbed to the top of the mountain about three-fourths of a mile from the state highway and discharged the rifle into his right temple just above the ear, the shot coming out on the left side of the head.

There was no motive for the act that could be found, but in a conversation with some of the friends of young McGuire it was stated that on several occasions he had made statements about the death of one of his friends, Henry Shearer, who last winter was found dead not far from the home of McGuire, and it thought that possibly this might have been the beginning of his plans for the fateful event.

The letter, which was addressed to Henry "Red" Nelson, is as follows:

"Say, Red, you tell everybody goodbye for me, I have had this planned out. When you come for me, come up to the Moore orchard.

So goodbye to all my friends and father and mother.

Mother asked me to take care of things. You do the best you can and tell them my watch is to go to my dad, my suits give to some of your boys, and tell them that my advice is to quit tobacco; it got the best of me, and tell them to have Miles to do talking over me. So goodbye to everyone. by Altha."

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our loving mother, Nancy A. M. McLaughlin, who died one year ago on August 5, 1946, at Huntersville:

You bid no one a last farewell,
You said goodbye to none,
Your dear heart ceased to beat,
And suddenly you were gone.

At the time when life could have been sweeter,
And you could have lived your best,
The gates of Heaven opened
And you entered into eternal rest

Rest and sleep in peace, dear mother,
Your heart aches and pain are over,

Only love and beauty can touch you now,
And God will see you suffer no more.

We never thought death so near,
And only those who have lost
Can tell the pain of parting
Without a last farewell.

By her daughters,
Grace, Bessie and Delana.

In Memoriam

In memory of Ruth Marie Gillispie, who passed away April 21, 1960.

WE MISS YOU

Your life was like a candle light,
So pure, So brief, but Oh, so bright!
With beams of love, you filled each heart,
And made it hard for us to part.
We miss your voice, your sweet embrace,
Your precious smile, your angel face.
Our hearts are sad, but this we know,
When God called, you had to go.
God needed you in Heaven above,
To teach his angels how to love.
He freed your soul, now it can rise,
To lead the angels in paradise.

Sadly missed by her parents, grandparents and brother. 44-1t

In Memoriam

In Memory of my dear Father, Hubert A. Grimes, who was called away 12 years ago, June 25, 1947:

Daddy died twelve years ago
When I was only seven,
And even though I miss him so,
I know that he's in heaven.

I know God had a purpose
For taking Daddy home.
But he left Mommy here with us
So she could carry on.

I was so small when Daddy died,
Some things I can't remember,
But yet fond memories I recall
In my heart they'll always linger.

Some day I hope to meet him
Up there on God's great shore,
To see his smile and clasp his hand,
Never to part anymore.

Written by his youngest daughter,
Mrs. Daniel Ryder

In Memoriam

In memory of our dear son and brother, Private First Class Ralph J. Griffin, who was killed in action one year ago on the 26th day of April on the Luzon Islands.

We never thought when you left home, dear Ralph,
That you would not return,
We often sit and think of you,
No eye can see us weep;
But deep within our aching hearts
Your smiling face we will keep.
When life was sweetest, and
You could have lived your best,
The gates of Heaven opened
And you entered that sweet rest.

Sadly missed by his Mother
Sisters and Brothers.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of my mother, Mrs. J. F. Rock, who passed away on June 1st, 1944.

1882—1944

There's a vacant place at home to day
Because of one who has gone away
And left us dazed with the mystery
Of the life that is and the life to be;
Left us missing the willing hand,
That has vanished into an unknown land.
Missing a heart that loved us true
Whether our mood was bright or blue,
But shall we say we have lost her? No.
Her days were spent; she was glad to go.
Glad to meet friends who have traveled there,
And I'm sure if she could come,
Back from the shades of the Great Unknown,
She would say "you must not worry so
It's not I, but death that is dead, you know."
And so our hearts take hope and cheer
From the fact that she was helpful here,
That fairly and squarely she played life's game,
Anp the world is better because she came.

Mrs. J. Clifford Hill.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear father and husband, Roy D. Snyder, who departed this life July 12, 1966.

Just one year ago you left us,
For a better place to rest,
But you are not forgotten,
By those who loved you best.

Deep in my heart lies a picture
More precious than silver or gold,
It's a picture of my husband and our dad
Whose memories will never grow old.

A beautiful life,
That came to an end
He died as he lived,
Everyone's friend.

Days of sadness will come o'er us,
Friends may think the wound is healed
But little they know the sorrow,
That lies within the heart concealed.

We often sit and think of you
And speak of how you died
To think you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes.

You are gone, but not forgotten,
Never shall your memory fade,
Loving thoughts will always linger
Round the grave where you were laid.

Sadly missed by wife and children.

In memory of Austin Steve Simonds, who passed away March 7, 1968.

God came roaming through His garden,
In the stillness of the day,
Plucked a tiny little rose bud,
And carried it tenderly away.

Away to His Own lovely garden,
Free from all worldly strife and care
To open out among the lilies,
And bloom on so rich and rare.

What glories bright now fill his view!
What fellowship divine!
What fields of deepening knowledge now,
Before his vision shine!

In Memoriam

In Loving Memory of our dear Aunt, Ella Watson, who passed away January 22, 1954—

We watched her suffer day by day,
It caused us bitter grief
To see her slowly pine away,
And could not give relief.

Her weary hours and days of pain,
Her troubled nights are passed;
And in our aching hearts we know
She has found sweet rest at last.

Tis sweet to know we will meet again,
Where parting is no more,
And our dear Aunt we loved so well
Has only gone before.

God knows how much we miss her,
He counts the tears we shed,
And whispers, "Hush, she only sleeps,
Your Aunt is not dead!"

Some day, some time, our eyes shall see
The face we loved so well,
Some day, some time, her hand we'll clasp,
And never say farewell.

Sadly missed by her
Nieces and Nephew

Death of Capt. Levi Waugh.

Capt. Levi Waugh, Commander of Moffett Poage Camp, United Confederate Veterans, is dead. He passed peacefully away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. D. Williams, in Marlinton, Wednesday morning, July 2nd, about 2 o'clock, aged 75 years. His remains will be laid away at Edray this (Thursday) afternoon.

Levi Waugh was born at Dilley's Mill, this county, March 30, 1838, and was a son of the late Rev. John Waugh, one of the earliest settlers on Indian Draft, near Edray. Late in 1858 or early in 1859, he enlisted in a cavalry company made up at Huntersville at a general muster. This company was originally mustered in as state troops, but at the outbreak of the civil war it was mustered into the service of the Confederacy. In 1863 he was captured and was held as a prisoner of war, most of the time at Fort Delaware, until the close of the war. For six years he served as commander of Moffett Poage Camp, U. C. V. A few weeks ago he attended the Confederate reunion at Chattanooga. Only last week he was stricken at the home of Mrs. Williams with something like paralysis and remained in a very critical condition for several days. Last Monday he had recovered sufficiently to come down town. On his way back to his daughter's he was again stricken. From this he never recovered but lingered along until death came to his relief.

Mr. Waugh was twice married. His first wife was Amanda F. Poage. His second matrimonial venture was his marriage to Ella F. Ruckman. Both are dead. His living children are Mrs. E. B. Vaughn. Mrs. A. D. Williams, Mrs. Preston Baxter, Mrs. W. P. Clowers, Miss Lizzie, Harlow, George and Grover. There are also surviving him two brothers and two sisters—Beverly and John being his brothers, and Mrs. Eveline Johnson and Mrs. Ann Potts, his sisters. All of these live in this county but the latter, who lives at Elkins.

Deceased was of a very quiet disposition. For several years past he has been making his home here, dividing his time among his three daughters, and sometimes visiting his other children. In 1855 he was converted at a campmeeting being held at Millpoint and united with the M. E. church. Shortly afterwards a motion was made in the conference to grant him license to preach, the motion being made by the late Rev. Jas. E. Moore. On account of his reticent disposition, however, he declined the offer to enter the ministery. His father, too, objected because of his youthfulness. When the church was divided he cast his lot with the southern branch of the denomination, but probably against his religious judgment, for after that time he never took an active part in church work although he retained his his membership in the church. Through life he always lived up to his motto which can be found in James 1: 27.

Deaths During the Week.

MRS. AMANDA WAUGH.

At her home in West Marlinton, Amanda Waugh, wife of John Waugh, sergeant of Marlinton, quietly passed from her labors here to a rest beyond, Saturday morning, February 7, 1908. Age 51 years, 8 months and 7 days.

Some weeks ago she was attacked with pneumonia which developed into some complication and effected her heart. Medical aid and tender hands did all that could be done and at times hope seemed to bend over her couch and her anxious friends looked forward to a restoration of health but, He who holds in His hand life and death continued to whisper to her a warning for her friends. On the evening before her death she called her family around her and told them farewell and then in calm Christian like manner sank into her last sleep only to awake beyond the tomb.

Amanda and John Waugh were rried December 31, 1878, and is union was born one son, Waugh, and three daughters, aries McCoy, Misses Grace thel Waugh, all of whom are living and who feel the sore loss of a good and kind mother. Besides these she leaves one sister, Mrs. Hannah Combs, two brothers, D. Waugh, of Indiana, and Emory Waugh, of Taylor county, one half sister, Miss Lizzie Waugh, and one half brother, Lon Waugh and many friends to mourn her departure.

She was a devout Christian woman having professed Christ in early life and associated her name with the M. E. Church. All who knew her remember her as a true faithful Christian woman, wife, friend and mother, at all times ready to assist those in need of help.

In loving memory of our son, Dale Edker Wilfong, who died at sea, four years ago, August 30, 1944, while in the service of his country.

Four years it has been so lonely,
Since you left us all alone,
Some where in the Atlantic deep,
Our dear son so peacefully sleeps.

Time marches on dear son,
And the days run into years,
But it matters not how swift they pass,
They cannot keep back our tears.

He heard the call of his country,
And answered it brave and true,
I will be a man to do or die,
I'm going to see them through.

But somewhere beyond this vale of tears,
God rules in Heaven above,
No war or strife can enter there
To hurt the one we love.

Our hearts are filled with loneliness
Our eyes are filled with tears
We do not even have your grave
To comfort us through the coming years.

Our Star of Hope so precious
We call the Golden Star,
It shineth in our window now,
Our loved one lost at war.

By his Father and Mother,
Mr. and Mrs. Jess Wilfong

In Memoriam

The following poem was select-by Don McKenney, in memory of his father, S. W. McKenney, who departed this life on Tuesday, May 3, 1949:

ONLY A DAD

Only a dad, with a tired face
Coming home from the daily race
Bringing little of gold or fame,
To show how well he has played the game,
But glad in his heart when his own rejoice
To see him come and to hear his voice.

Only a dad of a brood at the door
One of ten million men, or more,
Plodding along in the daily strife
Bearing the whips and scorn of life
With never a whimper of pain or hate
For the sake of those who at home do wait.

Only a dad, neither rich nor proud
Merely one of the surging crowd,
Toiling, striving, from day to day
Facing whatever may come his way,
Silent whenever the harsh condemn,
And bearing it all for the love of them.

Only a dad, but he gives his all,
To smooth the way for his children small,
Doing with courage, stern and grim,
The deeds that his father did for him;
This is the line that I pen for him
Only a dad, but the best of men.
